

CHILD POLICY

The Wych Elm pub and our garden at the rear are primarily reserved for an adult clientele and therefore, not ideal for young children.

Families are welcome but we insist that children must sit at the family table with their parents for the duration of their visit and without disturbing other customers of the pub.

Thank you for your understanding and if our policy has been prohibitive today, we look forward to welcoming you back on a more suitable occasion.

Michael Pearson
The Wych Elm

If you require further information please email me on info@thewychelmkingston.com